

Sale Committee Scholarship Application
Due by June 5, 2026, to the Extension Office

Name:

Signature:

Date:

Address:

Phone:

Return all completed applications to the 4-H Extension Office by June 5, 2026. No late applications will be accepted.

Scoring will be based on the written application and herdsmanship interviews. Winning applicants will receive their scholarship check after successfully completing their project.

Sale Committee Scholarship Application

Due by June 5, 2026, to the Extension Office

What do you plan to sell at the Henry County Fair in 2026?

Years in current livestock or ham project:

Have you sold at the Henry County Fair in years past? If so, what did you sell?

Total years in 4-H:

Total years in FFA:

Age as of Jan. 1, 2026:

1. Why did you pick this project?
2. Describe your project and what you have done so far this year.
3. What additional things are you planning to do to get ready for the Henry County Fair?
4. How do you plan to market your livestock or ham project to potential buyers at the livestock/ham sale?

Return all completed applications to the 4-H Extension Office by June 5, 2026. No late applications will be accepted.

Scoring will be based on the written application and herdsmanship interviews. Winning applicants will receive their scholarship check after successfully completing their project.

Sale Committee Scholarship Application

Due by June 5, 2026, to the Extension Office

5. How would you promote your project to other kids in our community?

6. Write down your typical daily, weekly, and/or monthly chores related to this project.

7. If you have done this project before- are there any improvements you have made to make this project better this year? Write N/A if this is your first year for this project.

8. List your current and anticipated expenses for this project.

9. List any community service projects you have done this year and describe your role in them.

10. Why should the committee select you for this scholarship?.

Return all completed applications to the 4-H Extension Office by June 5, 2026. No late applications will be accepted.

Scoring will be based on the written application and herdsmanship interviews. Winning applicants will receive their scholarship check after successfully completing their project.